

Race & Pedagogy

INITIATIVE

University of Puget Sound • Tacoma, Washington

Dr. Dexter Gordon

Director, Race & Pedagogy Initiative
Professor & Chair, African American Studies
Distinguished Professor, Communication Studies
University of Puget Sound

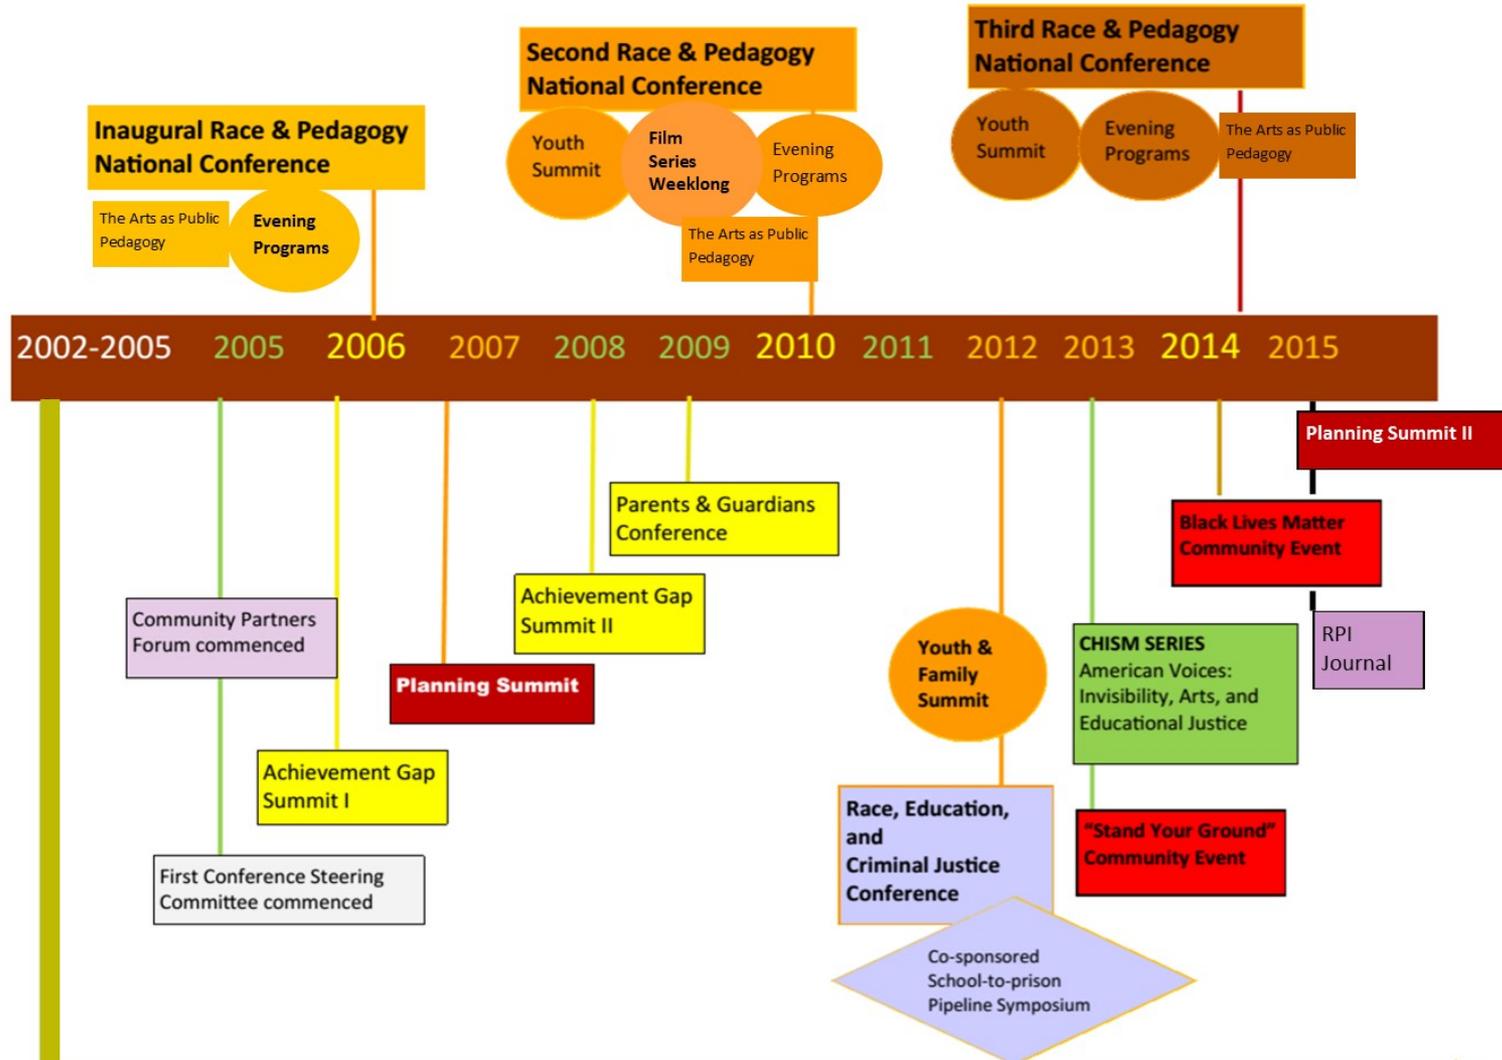

The Race & Pedagogy Initiative at the University of Puget Sound is a collaboration of the University of Puget Sound and the South Sound community that integrates intellectual assets of the campus into a mutual and reciprocal partnership with local community experience and expertise with a vision to educate students and teachers at all levels to think critically about race and to act to eliminate racism.

Race & Pedagogy Video

Race & Pedagogy Initiative Major Events Timeline

www.pugetsound.edu/raceandpedagogy (April 2016)

Faculty Conversations, Staff Conversations, Syllabi, Classrooms, Student Leadership, Independent Studies, Assessment, Internships, Conference Presentations, Representation & Space, Community Engagement

Be Part of....

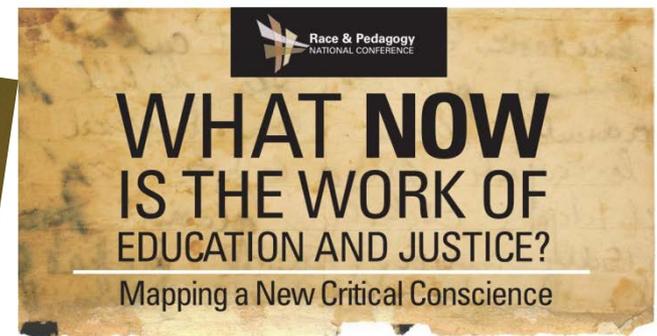

The 2018 Race & Pedagogy National Conference

Presenters

Volunteers

Organizers

September 25–27, 2014
UNIVERSITY OF PUGET SOUND | TACOMA, WA

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

ANGELA DAVIS
WINONA LADUKE: A Swedge Endowed Lecture on Ethics, Religion, Faith, and Values
HENRY LOUIS GATES JR.: A Susan Resneck Piene Lecture in Public Affairs and the Arts
EDUARDO BONILLA-SILVA

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

The three subthemes Freedom and Civil Rights Struggles, Institutional Readiness and Transformation, and Revolutionary Pedagogies will be explored through panels, workshops, poster sessions, roundtable conversations, interactive sessions, artistic moments, and more.

SPOTLIGHTS

Teacher Development and Preparation
Learning & Teaching About Human Genetic Variation and Race
Race, Education, and Criminal Justice
Arts as Public Pedagogy
Institutional Readiness

Preregistration required:

pugetsound.edu/rpnc
Group and discounted rates available.

pugetsound.edu/raceandpedagogy #whatNOW @PSRacepedagogy

Additional sponsors to be confirmed. View complete list at pugetsound.edu/raceandpedagogy

Sponsors